Cleveland Clinic

In response to the Northeast Ohio community's generous requests to provide assistance during the ongoing novel coronavirus pandemic, Cleveland Clinic has launched a COVID-19 Community Response Campaign. The Community Response Campaign is Cleveland Clinic's effort to direct people's generosity to provide meaningful impact for our patients and caregivers in a variety of ways. Please visit to learn how you can help. To donate supplies such as personal protective equipment, hand sanitizer or disinfecting wipes, volunteers are staffing curbside drop-off at the Richard E. Jacobs Family Health Center. Hours are Monday through Friday from 9am to 1pm through April 30.

<https://give.ccf.org/covid19>

MERCYHEALTH

Mercy Health remains committed to building a healthier community – in mind, body and spirit – and will always be responsive to the pressing needs of the time. In today's unprecedented environment, all can join hands with healthcare professionals fighting the COVID-19 crisis through contributions made at www.givebsmh.com.

For questions or to make a gift by phone, call (800) 999-2744.

University Hospitals

University Hospitals is taking critical steps to ensure the health, safety and well-being of our entire community.
